for plaintiff and appellee.

State v. Moore

No. 20050133

Per Curiam.

[¶1] Anthony James Moore appeals from the district court's denial of his motion to correct an illegal sentence. Moore argues: (1) he was improperly required to register as a sexual offender for life under a statute that does not apply to him; (2) he was required to register as a sexual offender erroneously because he is "actually innocent"; and, (3) he was denied due process by being sentenced to pay restitution without receiving notice.

[¶2] Moore's claims are frivolous and completely without merit. We summarily affirm under N.D.R.App.P. 35.1(a)(1).
